Re: Sole Source Verification Letter

To whom it may concern,

MedBridge, Inc. provides patient and clinician education services via a scalable SaaS model and, to our knowledge of the industry, is the sole provider of an integrated professional development and patient education platform that is compliant with the HITRUST CSF security framework.

The MedBridge services are sold only as a direct transaction between MedBridge, Inc. and the end customer. There are no other agents or dealers authorized to represent MedBridge services.
